Held every summer in Hilton Beach on St. Joseph Island, the Old Town Hall Concert Series was initially held in the small 1912 Town Hall. The Series rapidly gained in popularity and soon after moved to the current town hall, part of which was an 1896 schoolhouse. The town hall has a seating capacity of 250, which limits the size of our audiences and makes for a small, intimate venue.

The Old Town Hall Concert Series has become known over the years as a venue for the very best of Canadian musical talent. The cream of the crop from Canadian jazz and popular music scenes have entertained thousands of thrilled concertgoers since 1996.

Past performers at the Old Town Hall Concert Series have toured the world, played at the most prestigious concert halls, won Junos and other awards, and have continued to develop the distinguished image of Canadian musicians internationally.

We wish for you to join us this season as our concerts continue to fill the hall to capacity and our performances keep getting bigger and better.

And please, keep in mind that our small venue limits our ticket revenue, and as a result your donations are very much needed and appreciated. Your support will ensure that we can continue to bring Canada's finest musical talent to Hilton Beach every summer.
